

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FALL LIBRARY TOUR DATE ANNOUNCED

September 22, 2016 Glendale, AZ - The Friends of the Glendale Public Library is excited to announce that it will be hosting an informational social at the Glendale Main Library at 5959 Brown Street on October 18 at 5:30 P.M. The event will bring together library friends, advocates, patrons of the library and prospective members. A tour conducted by Chief Librarian Michael Beck and staff will be included. In addition, the Friends will be collecting library stories during the event through its participation with Libraries Transform, a public awareness campaign of the American Library Association. "People have real connections to our Glendale libraries and we want to hear their stories," said Paula Wilson, Vice President of the Friends of the Glendale Public Library. Refreshments will be provided by the Friends. Please R.S.V.P. to Paula Taylor at ptaylor@gplfriends or through Facebook/gazfol.

About the Friends of the Glendale Public Library

The Friends of the Glendale (AZ) Public Library is a non-profit, grassroots membership group dedicated to promoting Glendale's library system, an essential institution of our community. For information about The Friends, visit www.gplfriends.org.

About Libraries Transform, an Initiative of the American Library Association

The Libraries Transform Campaign, an initiative of the American Library Association (ALA), is designed to increase public awareness of the value, impact and services provided by libraries and library professionals. The campaign will showcase the transformative nature of today's libraries and elevate the critical role libraries play in the digital age.

###

MEDIA CONTACT: PAULA TAYLOR, PTAYLOR@GPLFRIENDS.ORG, 623-910-5592

Dedicated to Supporting and Promoting the Value of Glendale Public Libraries

Friends of the Glendale Public Library, P.O. Box 10923, Glendale AZ 85318-0923
www.gplfriends.org | info@gplfriends.org